Looking for more details about one of our trips?
Call (708) 343-5270.

Registration

Registration can be made in person (cash, check, or credit card: Visa, Discover, AmEx or Master Card.) Charge payment can be made over the phone. Payment is required at registration for most trips. The exception to this is an overnight trip where a deposit is required. Spaces cannot be held. When registering for a casino trip your birth date is required for the casino manifest.

Cancellations

If the park district cancels a trip due to low enrollment, participants are notified and can get a refund or transfer the money to a credit or another trip. Cancellations for personal reasons can be made up to 10 days prior to the date of the trip. If a cancellation is made after this date the participant must find a replacement or will be charged a 50% surcharge.

Brown Bag Tour

This is our annual Amish Tour. We will begin our adventure traveling through picturesque back roads of Northern Indiana. This is known as a brown bag tour, when we get to Shipshewana, we will pick up a guide, that will travel with us all day. You are given a brown bag as we will stop at Amish businesses and collect items from each store we stop at. Then we will have a full fabulous lunch cooked by an Amish family. The lunch will consist of fried chicken, homemade mashed potatoes, vegetable with trimmings. Dessert is a choice of about 5 different pies and homemade French vanilla ice cream on top. This is one you don't want to miss! Come and join us!
